Seventh Annual Fine Arts Festival

British Influence In The Arts

Ted Fallows as Jake Tanned and Dawn Greenhalgh as Anne Whitfie'd appeared in Man and Superman as part of the Fine Arts Festival.

Basil Rathbone, British Actor

A panorama of British art, drama, literature was presented at the Seventh Annual Fine Arts Festival at Wesleyan February 5th through the 11th. The theme of the Festival this year was "British Influence in the Arts" and the program for the week proved an exhilarating and enriching experience for the patrons, students and all who attended.

The Festival opened with the well-known Canadian Players presenting Shaw's "Man and Superman" Wednesday night in Porter Family Memorial Auditorium. They are from the world renowned center of drama at Stratford, Ontario and showed the audience the unmatched vitality of contemporary Canadian theatre.

On Thursday afternoon was scheduled the formal opening of the exhibit of 44 abstract paintings by thirteen leading contemporary Canadian artists. Sponsored by the Canadian Embassy, the exhibition has been touring leading museums and galleries under the auspices of the Smithsonian Institution. Canada's remarkable upsurge in the arts was evidenced in the canvases by the outstanding painters Borduas, Edmund A. leyn, Fernand Leduc, Kazuo Nakamura, Gordon Smith and others.

A program of music by British composers was presented by Wesleyan students at convocation Friday morning in Porter Family Memorial Auditorium.

Saturday night Festival goers had the unique experience of hearing George Lucktenberg play music by British composers on a two-manual harpsichord. It is believed this was the first time a harpsichord of this unusual size has been in this section of the country. Mr. Lucktenberg has been a pupil of the eminent teacher Soulima Stravinsky and also won a Fullbright Scholarship to Vienna, Austria. At the Vienna State Academy of Music he was awarded the Academy's Artist's Diploma in harpsichord, normally a six-year course, in one year. Wesleyan faculty members participated in the Saturday night program with Miss Marjorie Suhs and Mr. John O'Steen playing twin pianos and Miss Mary Pate giving narration along with the pianos. Mrs. Doris Jelks, Mr. and Mrs. Kees Kooper and Mrs. Norman McLean also took part in the program.

Sir Lawrence Olivier starred in the movie "Henry V" which was shown Monday afternoon, February 10.

Highlight of Tuesday night's Festival entertainment was Basil Rathbone, star of many Broadway and Hollywood successes, who presented in his inimitable fashion, accent and timing, a group of readings chosen for this occasion.

Miss Mary Pate and Mr. Leon Villard, did a splendid job in planning this event.

CAMPUS CONSPECTUS

DRAMA

The Wesleyan Drama Department warmed up for the season by presenting "Peg O' My Heart," described by the reviewer as a "bit of fluff" having some excellent points, as well-done sets and characterizations. Caroline Browder carried the lead with support by Delores Tyre and Maureen Bass. Mike, a mongrel dog, rescued from the dog pound for a role in the play, won the warm hearts of the cast who refused to send him back to his dubious fate and found him a comfortable home. Happy ending!

"Ladies in Retirement" was the Christmas presentation with Delores Tyre of Jesup and Maureen Bass of Albany in the leading roles. The director was Miss Mary Pate of the Wesleyan faculty.

A quartet of short plays was presented . . . Miss Elaine Wilder narrated as Soubrette. Two of the plays were written by Wesleyan students, Premonition by Miss Caroline Browder, Arcadia, Fla., and The Last Magic by Miss Polly Rodieck, Clearwater, Fla. The other plays were William Saroyan's Hello Out There featuring Oliva Wright, and The Prince and the Princess starring Joanne Powell of Dublin.

ART

Exciting news in the Art Department is that Miss Lucille Blanch of the Faculty was invited to show eight of her paintings in an invitation exhibition of the Borrow, Browse, and Buy Gallery which was opened last year by a group of leading Atlanta women interested in expanding recognition of the arts. Miss Blanch was among the handful of prominent Georgia artists invited to take part in the first anniversary. Others were George Beattie and Lamar Dodd, head of the art department at the University of Georgia.

A painting by Lucille Blanche has been purchased for the new Mercer Student Center and will be hung in the lobby of the newly completed building.

MUSIC

The Macon-Wesleyan Symphony Orchestra began early in September preparing for the season under the direction of Dr. William Hoppe, dean of the Wesleyan School of Fine Arts.

Dr. Hoppe was founder of the Mississippi All-State Orchestra and was their conductor until 1954. He also organized the Jackson Youth Symphony in Jackson, Miss., which presented several television programs and participated in the Alabama All-State Festival. A string specialist, he has served as guest conductor for many string clinics. Dr. Hoppe studied conducting under Leonard Bernstein and Lukas Foss.

The fall concert in Porter Family Memorial Auditorium, November 10, showed how fortunate Wesleyan and Macon are in having a musician and conductor of Dr. Hoppe's talent. The orchestra was augmented by members of the Augusta and Atlanta symphonies. Kees Kooper, of Wesleyan, outstanding violinist, was concertmaster. Miss Lee Brenaman, Orlando, Fla., was the featured soloist, playing the First Movement of Beethoven's Third Piano Concerto.

The Wesleyan Glee Club's traditional Christmas program presented December 16 in Porter Auditorium was a delight to the many that heard it. The concert under the direction of Leon Villard carried out a theme of sacred music that far surpassed the trite offerings often heard at Christmastime. The first half of the program was a group of six carols, some early English lyrics with modern musical settings. The feature presentation, a Cantata, The Childhood of Christ by Johann Christoph Bach (The "London Bach", youngest son of the immortal Johann Sebastian Bach) was performed by the Wesleyan Choral Organizations with four local professional soloists; Frances Richardson, soprano, Ruth Schmoll, contralto, Walter Pharr, tenor, and Norman McLean, bass. Doris O. Jelks was the organist. A group of 25 players from the Wesleyan-Macon Symphony accompanied the cantata.

ASSORTED ACTIVITIES

The campus played leapfrog from one peak of activity to another during the current year with the annual Homecoming, high school week-end, selection of students for inclusion in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, and honors to the faculty serving 20 years or more.

Bad weather delayed the traditional soccer games, but slowed down not a whit the Homecoming banquet and dance. Highlight of the dance of course being selection of the queen. Seven seniors, candidates for the honor were: Eleanor Adams, Gloria Barwick, Beverly Castle, Libby Cauthen, Jean O'Keefe, Nancy Peterson and Temple Wilson. Jean O'Keefe was crowned queen.

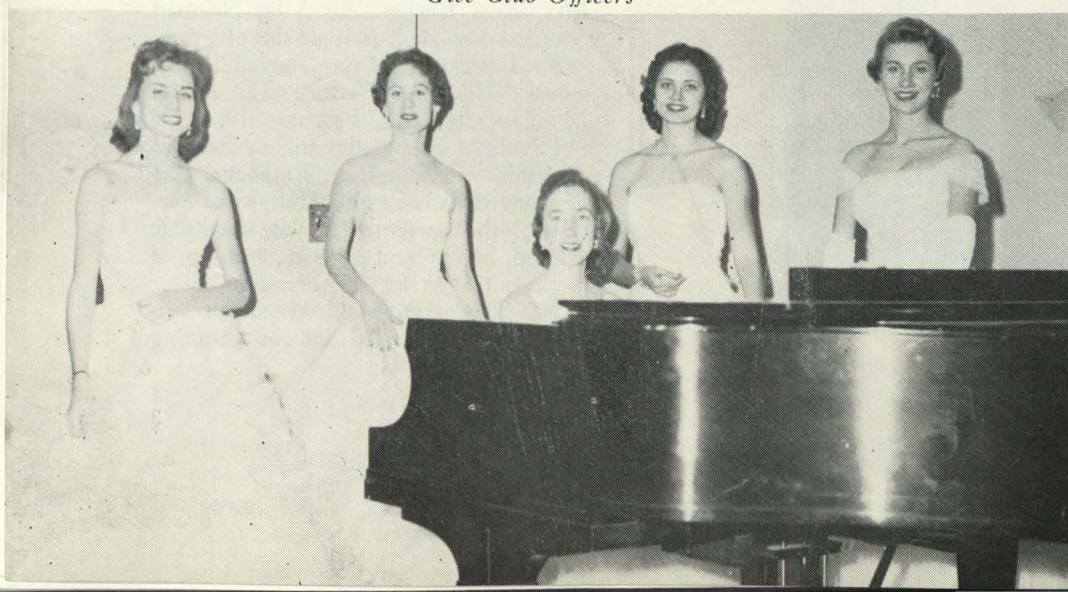

YOUNGEST ALUMNAE

HIGH SCHOOL WEEK-END

Signing the register was the first and last prosaic item for the over two hundred high school students who were the week-end guests of Wesleyan Dec. 6-8. Following was a fast whirl of parties, plays and soccer excitement to show them that Wesleyannes put as much energy into their good times as they do into their academic schedule. Speech and music auditions for prospective students were held Saturday morning, after an informal party given by the sophomore class Friday night. Taps both nights were sponsored by the Y.W.C.A.

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Soccer games previously delayed by the weather were played off Saturday morning. The Athletic Association gave a demonstration, followed by a fashion show at 4 p.m. put on by Social Standards. Supper and a cabin-party with a dormitory party following were on schedule Saturday night. Ladies in Retirement presented by the drama department was open to the visitors both nights. Church services in the morning and Sunday luncheon rounded out a festive week-end for the visitors.

Water Show

The Wesleyan Naiads outdistanced the channel champions in their annual water show, Dec. 12 and 13, with their "A Splash Around the World" of seven acts, representing visits to the following countries: Egypt, China, France, Africa, Scotland, Hawaii, and Spain. Maureene Bass, Albany was the narrator. Special back-drops, lighting effects, and original costumes added to the effectiveness of the colorful show.

On the front row, left to right, are: Miss Elizabeth Winn, registrar of the Liberal Arts College; Miss Christine Broome, assistant professor of Spanish and German; Mrs. Albert Jelks, professor of organ and piano; and Miss Martha Kern, assistant professor of French and Spanish. Back row, left to right, are: Dr. George Warren Gignil-liat, Jr., head of the English department; Miss Katherine Carnes, librarian; Dr. Samuel L. Akers, dean of the College of Liberal Arts; Dr. Thelma Howell, head of the department of biology and the pre-medical science program; and Jesse Redmond, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

Members of the maintenance and service staff receiving certificates included Leonia Robison, Mary Henderson, John Neal, William Webb, Hattie Wilson, John Davis, Henry Elzie, Charlie Samuel Austin, Mary Liz Key, Leslie Nel'ams, Ed Fields, May Umphries and Hattie Bird.

Dr. B. Joseph Martin and Miss Corneila Shiver, second from right, talk to High School visitors.

Twenty-two faculty and staff members who have served Wesleyan College for a total of more than 622 years were honored at special chapel exercises in November for their service to the college. Each of them has served the college for twenty years or more.

Dr. B. Joseph Martin, president, presented a certificate of appreciation to each one. "These certificates are being presented in grateful appreciation of your outstanding example of loyalty and unselfish devotion to duty . . . an example which has merited the affection and esteem of trustees, president, faculty, staff, and students alike and which will long serve as an inspiration and guide," said Dr. Martin in recognizing the group. Dr. William J. Hinson, college chaplain, gave a prayer of Thanksgiving, and Miss Luleen Sandefur of Roberta, president of the Wesleyan YWCA, expressed the appreciation of the students for the service and helpfulness of those being honored. Dr. W. A. Hoppe, dean of the School of Fine Arts, asked the benediction.

Bonus Benefits Library

The library has received $1,000 from the Banks fund for the past two years and $500 for 1957. The bookplate reads "William N. Banks Library of the United States Language and Literature. Established 1954." This fund enables the Library not only to keep abreast of current publications, but to fill many gaps in the collections.

Then like a fairy tale—an additional $1,000 was received during the year. With this gift, leaks in the steps and porch that were doing great damage to the building were repaired; twelve screens were installed to replace the old ones in the main reading room; a ten drawer Recordak filing cabinet for our microfilms, and two four drawer filing cabinets to take care of Mrs. Lamar's bequest of Lanieriana have been purchased. A part of this money is being held for urgent needs that arise.

Katherine Carnes says that these repairs and the acquisition of this equipment represent a dream come true!

The Candler Memorial Library of Wesleyan College has been awarded a sub-grant of $200 from the Association of College and Research Libraries, Miss Katherine Carnes, librarian, recently announced.

The grant was made from funds made available by the U.S. Steel Foundation, according to Miss Eileen Thornton, librarian of Oberlin College and president of ACRL, which is a division of the American Library Association.

This $200 grant is to be applied on the cost of a consultant in planning a future addition to the present library facilities at Wesleyan, Miss Carnes stated.

Wesleyan is one of 87 libraries to receive sub-grants in this third year of the program. Three major corporations have contributed to the program "to strengthen or modernize library, teaching, or learning tools" in privately owned colleges and universities. These are U.S. Steel, New York Times, and Remington Rand division of Sperry-Rand Corporation. A total of $125,000 has been distributed over the 3-year period.

"These grants are evidence of the real concern of American business for the great necessity of strengthening library resources as a vital part of collegiate education," stated Miss Thornton. "They realize how directly a student's reading ability and habits influence his life as a citizen and what an important part the college library plays in preparing him for citizenship."

WHO'S WHO

Ten seniors will be included among Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. They are: Julie Stillwell, of Macon, not shown in the picture; Mary Cooper, Luleen Sandefur, Roberta, president of YWCA; Libby Cauthen, Winder; Becky Duncan, Anderson, S.C.; Joy Hatcher Fason, Atlanta; Jensene Godwin, Hawthorne, Fla.; Beth Hodgins, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Mary Louise Rose, and Linda Warnock, Savannah.

Continued Education, Summer Session

Wesleyan will hold a six-week summer session this year, starting Monday June 9 and ending Wednesday July 16. This will include two short terms—June 9 to June 26 and June 26 to July 16.

Courses are being planned to meet the needs of several different groups: those working toward teaching certification; college students wishing to accelerate or enrich their programs; teachers working for a degree or for maintaining professional certification; pre-college students wishing to become oriented to college work or to remove deficiencies; college students desiring to make up deficiencies; and workers from the fields of religious education and church music.

Dr. Edward Murdoch, professor of psychology, will be the Director of the Summer School. Members of the Wesleyan faculty will teach, supplemented by teachers from other campuses.

The cost of tuition and fees for the full term is $45 for one course or $85 for two courses. Should a course carry less than 3 hours credit, the charge will be based on $15 per semester hour.

Auditing charge will be $10 per semester hour, with charges for private music lessons to be obtained upon request.

Room, board, and laundry for the full term will be $105. for the short term, the cost will be $60.

Final registration date will be June 10th. Following that date, a $3 late registration fee will be charged. Dormitory rooms will be available and regular meals will be served in the dining hall.

All of the recreational facilities at Wesleyan will be free of charge to summer school students. These include indoor swimming, tennis, canoeing, fishing, golf and hiking. Horseback riding can be arranged if desired.

The 50,000-volume library will be open during the session, and several outstanding lecturers and performers will make personal appearances on special programs.

Chapel services will be scheduled throughout each week so that it will be possible to attend without interfering with classes.

Classes will be held from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The tentative schedule of courses includes:

Art: Interior Design; Ceramics
Education: Science for Teachers
English: Children's Literature; Historical Survey of English Lit.
Foreign Languages: Int. French, Spanish Government: Federal; State and Local History: U.S.; World Civilization
Homemaking: Foods and Nutrition
Mathematics: Plane Trigonometry; College Algebra
Music: Applied (voice, piano, organ)
 Church; History and Appreciation of Philosophy: Ethics; Introduction to Philosophy
Physical Education: Health; Community Recreation
Psychology: General; Developmental; Educational Religion: The Bible; Christian Thought; Religious Education
Sociology: Social Problems; Principles of Sociology
 For further information, write Dr. Bernard Murdoch, Director of Summer School, Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga. Other courses will be added if there is sufficient demand.

Festival Tour of Europe 1958

Summer may seem light-years away as the sharp drafts of cold air whisk about our ankles and down our throats. But in a split-second you can begin making plans for that blessed span of time in which the tension is eased and you do the things you want to for a change. And who would not want (at any rate) to join the Kees Koopers' Music and Art Festival Tour through Europe? Imagine boarding the S.S. Maasdam on July 10 in New York and heading across the Atlantic to England, France, Monaco, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and Belgium. Best of all, though, would be knowing that you would be in expert guiding hands, for Mr. and Mrs. Kooper, concert artists now teaching at Wesleyan have a background that will insure unique selection of the unusual and best on the itinerary. Both have lived in Europe for years, (Mr Kooper being a native of Holland) and have personal connections in the countries to be visited so you can really be sure of getting glimpses of how other people live instead of the facade for tourists so often seen. They know the out-of-the-way places that are picturesque, and hidden treasures of art that the bulk of tourists seldom see.

The names of the countries England, France, Monaco . . . seemed to be like big deep bells bonging out "Come, come . . ." with the cities Windsor, Interlaken, Avignon, Bayreuth, Cologne, Haarlem, Ghent, LeHavre, like the smaller chimes ringing out a welcome.

And, if words don't make music for you, there is actual glorious music to be heard: Paris Opera and concert; music festivals in Aix-en-Provence; Mozart Festival in Salzburg; Wagner at the famous Bayreuth festival.

For those who are longing to see the wealth of painting, sculpture, and architecture in the various museums and galleries in Europe and are perhaps a bit baffled and uncertain about what they do want to see, the Koopers will guide them through these treasures to a deeper understanding of the expressiveness of styles and their historical development.

There will be several evenings of theatre in London and Paris. And interspersed among the music, art and drama will be visits at the homes of friends of the Koopers in the different places, giving you a chance to make new friends and really know them. The hotels and inns, all first-class, have been chosen because they are located in the very center of all town activity and because they are informal and home-like, offering the opportunity of meeting many Europeans. The schedule is elastic enough to give you free time for individual and private interests.

The tour price is $1350 tourist class, $1450 cabin class. Transatlantic crossing by air available at additional cost. Tour price includes: Transportation (round trip transatlantic passage, all transportation costs in Europe), all concert tickets, all meals, all hotel accommodations; all tips except on board ship. It does not include: expense of passport, insurance, laundry, subway and city bus fare, round trip fare to New York. Did we forget to mention that the Koopers are expert linguists? So it would be impossible to find yourself in a "I Love Lucy" situation gesticulating with a French gendarme.

Of course ship space to Europe is already at a premium so reservations should be made as soon as possible. Deposit required for definite reservation $200—balance of payment due six weeks before departure.

The tour is open to students, teachers, musicians, artists, amateurs, travelers. But students reap a double benefit in that Wesleyan College is offering 3 to 6 hours of undergraduate credit, at $18 per semester hour plus $1 registration fee. To make the whole thing more specific, more interesting and therefore easier (no one could lack for research material), a special topic will be chosen at the beginning of the tour in consultation with the instructor and a paper will be required. We don't suggest substituting a diary, but the difficult part would be to slow the pen or typewriter.

So, though you, too, may abominate spring prints and cruise clothes in the show windows the first day of January (and fume at fur coats in July), don't feel you're being pushed ahead too fast. Such a trip deserves the long, long tingle of anticipation and excitement, and the careful planning to reap the treasures of experiences and memories it will hold.

the (Wallace) Oliphant and Eva Lowe Skipworth with three students.

Columbus Club

The Columbus Club, in the late fall, invited junior and senior members of the Future Teachers of America of the three high schools of Columbus, along with other interested young people to be their guests at St. Paul Methodist Church to hear Jeannette (Wallace) Oliphant, who was in Columbus to participate in the annual College Day program being held in all high schools.

Eva Lowe (Baisden) Skipworth, president of the Columbus Wesleyan Club, was assisted in greeting the young people by a number of Wesleyanians. Among them were Jo Mixon, Helen Jones, Few (Rigbie) Mixon, Sue (Edge) Taylor, Courtney (Knight) Gaines, Anne (Whipple) Alderman, Mary Sue (Butler) Ogletree, Nancy (Williams) Holliman, Doris (Birchler) Hall, Virginia (Scott) Estes, Rebecca (Smith) Faber.

NOTICE TO ALUMNAE

It is important to have a record of all alumnae support to the college. When making any gift to Wesleyan College, if it is a contribution of money, or if it is a material gift, please direct it through the Alumnae Office, or notify the office if it was sent directly to the administration.

Since the establishment of the Loyalty Fund some years ago the "pooled" gifts — most of which were small contributions and which came to the Alumnae Office—add to more than $335,000. If the Alumnae Office had a record of all Alumnae gifts, the figure would be very much larger.

During 1956-1957 more than $5,000 given to Wesleyan is not reflected in the records of this office.

In the case of a large contribution, if you wish your gift to be anonymous, your identity will be unpublished, but the amount of your gift can be added to the total of alumnae support of Wesleyan.

Wesleyanne Composes State Song

Wesleyan congratulates Alberto Denton Marshall, of Atlanta on having the song she composed The Grand March of Georgia selected as the official marching song of Georgia. It is being distributed to state schools and clubs by the Secretary of State's office. The song was officially adopted by a resolution of the Georgia House of Representatives during the last session.

Mrs. Marshall, wife of an Atlanta pharmacist, said this is one of some 60 songs she has composed since earning a bachelor of music degree from Wesleyan and studying at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

The composer said she sought to portray the state's advancement along all fronts when she wrote the song. She has played and sung it on several programs. A constant refrain "Georgia marches on" occurs throughout the music. The words cite progress in many walks of life.

Class News

1882

Mary (Jones) Anderson is 92 years young. She says "Accept my congratulations and best wishes for continued usefulness and prosperity in all coming years." Thank you, Mary Jones Anderson.

1887

A plaque on one of the dormitories at Mercer University was recently unveiled in dedication ceremonies honoring the memory of Sallie Boone, a graduate of Wesleyan College, which read:

"Sallie Goelz Boone"

"Beloved member of the Mercer Family for more than 40 years. She gave her love, loyalty, life and likeness to Mercer University.

"As teacher, librarian, campus sweetheart and first House Mother in Mary Erin Porter Hall, she personified the highest ideals of Christian culture and embellished the service and spirit of the institution."

1889

Sympathy is extended Anita (McClen-don) Miller in the death of her son-in-law, Mr. Edgar D. Gilman.

1890

Nimqui (Williams) Smith's daughter wrote us about her mother having been ill in the hospital for five weeks. She is home now and getting along nicely. May we add "our very best wishes for a speedy recovery."

1892

Sallie (Harp) Adams and her husband Mr. Richard F. Adams celebrated their 64th Wedding Anniversary recently. From a clipping in the Palatka Daily News, this tribute was paid them:

"I know of no other couple who have lived a richer, fuller life than you two, not only for yourselves, but sharing it with others."

1894

Betty Lou (Cary) is now living in Miami with her children and says she is very happy. Her class was the last to graduate under the administration of Dr. W. C. Bass of whom she says "He was a good man and wonderful president."

1897

Harriet (Goodman) Harman suffered a broken hip in a fall in July but from a letter her daughter wrote she is better and hopes to be walking by the New Year—You have our best wishes!

1902

Sympathy is extended Louise (Peady) Wadsworth, Katie May (Peady) Cuttino, 1898 and Louise (Wadsworth) Jeffcoat, 1939, in the death of their sister and aunt, Daisy Peady whose death occurred October 18, 1957.

1904

Ella Mae (Evans) Rogers' daughter, Dorothy Rogers, has her second book off the press the title of which is "Jeopardy And a Jeep, Africa Conquered by Two Women Professors." It is a saga of a circuit by her and her companion in a jeep that took six months and covered 25,000 miles. Her third book will be off the press in 1958.

We extend sincere sympathy to Bessie (Mathews) O'Neal in the death of her

1907

Neville (Matthews) Eldridge writes from Barnesville, Ga., of the loss of her brother Albert Matthews of Thomaston, Georgia.

1908

Newell Mason through her generosity and kindness has sent money to a friend's relative in Hungary in spite of the general belief that no help could reach those under Communist rule. She has had a heart warming message that the funds did get to the Hungarian couple. She is now planning to send a wool dress and an overcoat because of the severe winter. She says "I want to do anything I can to help friends of a democracy survive."

Sympathy is extended Louise (Erming-er) Harris in the death of her husband Mr. John B. Harris.

Linda Sullivan Wood in preparation for her return to the Golden Anniversary Commencement, brings us up to date on her activities and interests. She teaches music in the Camp Hill, Alabama public school and gives Hammond organ lessons in her home. Being director for the glee club, junior chorus and counsellor for a music club would be enough for the average person's schedule, but she teaches a Sunday School class besides, and plays the concert model Hammond organ which she gave to the church in memory of her late husband, W. D. Wood, M.D.

Adelia Nicholson writes that she has been in a rolling chair since February. Her youngest sister is also very ill. We wish for you both a speedy recovery.

1913

Leonese (Park) Robinson says after getting her three children through college she is still able to hold down a good position. Living near her is a class mate, Ella Bess (McMichael) Schmeisser.

1915

Sympathy is extended Mary E. Brown in the death of her mother, Mrs. T. H. Brown.

1921

Sympathy is extended Mabel (Wood-ward) Douglas in the death of her father Mr. James M. Woodward, Sr., at the age of 87 years.

1925

Harriet (Evans) Southwell made us feel so good by complimenting the magazine —says she enjoys reading it every time it comes.

Sympathy is extended Emily (Brown) Edwards in the death of her mother, Mrs. T. H. Brown.

Sulee (Barnum) Weldon wrote to us about some wonderful trips she has had recently, as well as other news of interest. She wrote "In July my husband and I had a wonderful visit from my college chum, Etta Mae (Davenport) Young, her husband and two teen-age sons of Detroit. We motored over to Cypress Gardens for a reunion with Etta Mae's roommate at Wesleyan, Thelma Farrer, her husband Dwight Lambe and son Joe from Lakeland, Fla." Sulee won a trip to Nassau and she and her husband flew there for a week's vacation. She advises that an account of their trip will be read over WESH-TV in Daytona Beach at an early date. This trip took place about the time she acquired a new grand-daughter (a future Wesleyanne).

Maude Alice Barnum, LCdr., U.S.N.R. has bought a home in Daytona Beach and is now teaching Latin and English there at the Seabreeze High School.

Eugenia (Smith) Bowers writes from her home in Florida about the death of her mother, Rosa (Elder) Smith, 1896 who was an honor graduate of Wesleyan. We wish to extend our sympathy. Eugenia's husband is Captain Bowers of the Guided Missile Squadron at Patrick Air Base, in Florida.

A Christmas letter from Induk Pakh is brimming with her work, students being helped through the Berea in Korea Foundation, plans for the school in Korea, and news that 30,000 copies of her book, "September Monkey" have been printed, and that it was published in German this year. But the last bit of news so close to her heart will make her friends rejoice with her—Induk's daughter Iris Kim and her two sons came to the United States in March. "Their coming . . . was one of the impossible things God provided." Iris was five when her mother first came to Wesleyan.

Margaret (Sprayberry) Herrin has returned to her former position as Director of the Whitfield County Dept. of Public Welfare after an absence of one year of graduate work at Tulane University. She has this to say: "I was granted a scholarship by the State Dept. of Public Welfare, and completed one full year of graduate work in seven months. It was a most gratifying experience and proved to be a vacation as well as training."

Annie (Mays) Larmore is Branch Librarian in Atlanta. She has a teen age daughter who is planning to be a Wesleyanne. She writes "Although I do not get to visit Wesleyan often, I am very interested and proud of her progress."

We are very happy about Anne E. (Benton) Jordan having a daughter at Wesleyan in the freshman class.

Gladys (Moss) Powers spent some time in Macon and on the campus when her daughter, Jane was ill.

1930

Elizabeth (Scott) Hagan is teaching in one of the Tucson, Arizona Public Schools. Her husband has retired from the Army, so she says she hopes they are permanently located.

1933

To make a correction in last issue's class notes—it was Suelle (McKellar) Swartz' husband, not son who is working on the Ferrum Junior College drive. Her aunt, Dr. Ella Clare McKellar '07 is acting as coordinator in setting up a curriculum to lead directly to a profession of Christian service. Suelle's son, William, III, is a junior at V.P.I.; daughter Anne a sophomore in high school, son Gene, (named for Professor Idus Eugene McKellar) is a freshman at Randolph-Macon Military Academy, and youngest daughter Suelle Marie in the 6th grade. Suelle's extra-curricular activity this year is concentrated on the Multiple Sclerosis local chapter.

A letter from Ruth (Cox) Lantz advising that she is still editor of "The Shepherdess" magazine and would like to have some articles and poetry from other Wesleyanians who married preachers. She says she is quite busy keeping up with her family—two boys and a girl. She and her husband had a wonderful trip through Europe last summer.

1938

We have been brought up to date on news of Rebecca (Gerdine) Webb. She writes that they are now Floridians. Also have an adopted son, Joseph Harden, who is two years old. They became his parents when he was four days old. She writes "What free time I have I spend in W.S.C.S. work and A.A.U.W. In the latter I am chairman of the International Relations group and it is quite a challenge."

1939

Martha (Zachry) Thwaite's husband, Charles E. Thwaite, Jr., president of the Fourth National Bank of Columbus was elected president and a director of the Trust Company of Georgia.

1943

Martha (McPherson) Piper will be in Watertown, Mass. for this school year. Her husband is in school at Harvard.

1945

Virginia (Martin) Lawrence writes "At last we are out of the army and glad to be free of it. However, we do have a small memento from the Ft. Belvoir Virginia Hospital named Ann Tracy that we will always treasure. She joined a three-year old brother to make our family."

1948

Dr. Emily Bell has been appointed assistant professor of bacteriology in the University of Cincinnati's McMicken College of Arts and Sciences.

Elizabeth (Harman) Woodall was nice enough to help us catch up on the news. She writes, "Did you know that Lucy (Bushnell) and Garnet Lunsford have identical twins? Names Robert E. and Richard T. This makes 5 children for them." After the Tech-Auburn game, Libba and her husband had dinner with Jane (Epps) and Stan Henry. They have three children. After being in New Mexico, Jane (Schmidt) Catlin and family are now living in Montgomery where Captain Catlin is stationed. They have two sons.

Sympathy is extended Martha (Tigner) in the death of her father, Mr. W. S. Tigner.

Elizabeth (Hean) Stone writes that she plans to be back for reunion with her husband and mother, since 1911 reunions also. David arrived May 28 and is as active as his older brother. She sees Carolyn (Lee) Kunkell often, her husband being a surgeon there. She relays news of Liz Buzzell's boy born April 28, named Chapman, II.

News from Polly (Phelps) Deck, a daughter born Sept. 6, at Charlottesville, Va. This is their first child. She writes that a class-mate, Carolyn (Hodge) Rogers of Greenville, S. C., has a daughter, born in July at General Hospital where her husband is a senior resident in surgery.

Jane (Burnett) Sleamaker wishes she could contact a school-mate, Grace Chu Lin Wong. She advises us that they have a son who is the fourth addition to their family of three girls. Her husband is pastoring the South Street Methodist Church in Greenfield, Ind.

1950

News comes from the Dean at Florida State University that Mary Cobb is enrolled for the academic year of 1957-58 in the graduate program of education and training in social work in the School of Social Welfare. He says she is making a good record.

A delightful letter from Nancy (Cumplings) Connolly reveals that she is living in Augusta at 2320 Cumming Rd., with her husband, Hugh who is practicing law, and the dependents; David, three years old, Tommy, three months, and Virginia, "somehow sandwiched in between."

An enclosed snapshot shows a first reunion of "Le Grand Cinq"; Billy (Jones) Rowe, Margie (Gray) Dorman, Jennie (Thompson) Miller, Nancy, and Patty (Banks) Sheppard at whose beach home at Atlantic Beach, Morehead City, N. C., the houseparty gathered. None seemed to have lost the "joie de vivre" of their "four chaotic but glorious years at the Conservatory" for the houseparty, Nancy says, "included our lovers, but excluded children and dogs, however, the husbands did not stand a chance."

Mary George Bond writes, "Since leaving Wesleyan I have been in Elberton and am now employed by the U.S. Department of the Interior as Administrative Assistant to the Administrator of Southeastern Power Administration. I love the work and from time to time have occasion to travel to Washington D.C. for duty there."

Alice (Weldon) Baker's second little girl was born on the same date that her other daughter came, and is also their wedding anniversary. Alice's husband is an engineer and is a Professor of Physics at Hillyer College in Hartford Conn.

Peggy (Stiles) McKown writes that they bought a house in Chattanooga over a year ago. They have a new baby, their second child, a son born August 2, 1957. Their other son will be four in December. She would like to hear from some classmates and wish there could be more news of this class.

Vee (Hardy) Huie should be settled by now in Decatur Ga., where her husband Wade is to occupy the Peter Marshall Chair of Homiletics at Columbia Seminary. A December 4th letter told of their plans and mentioned how much the boys Wade and John were enjoying the first snow of the season in Princeton, N.J. where they were for three months. She is looking forward to being with four Atlanta room-mates and other Wesleyanians in that sector.

Joanne (Williams) Callahan sends her new address which she says will be the last for a while. They have their home now and feel that whatever they put into it worth the effort. She keeps busy looking after their two sons, Mickey and Teddy. Should any of you Wesleyanians be in California, Canoga Park, look Joanne up.

Nell Ann (Summers) Walters has moved from Pennsylvania to Griffin, Ga. and says they are enjoying living there so much. Her address is 427 Meriwether Street.

Mayson (Thornton) Bissell writes that a little brother arrived on November 2 for their three year old Lynn to play with. She also was pleased over the infirmery being completed, and added that Wesleyan is truly growing in every direction!

Mary Laslie writes "I received my Masters Degree in Zoology this past August and began work on my Ph.D. in September. I enjoy it but I certainly miss Wesleyan. However, between my two sisters who are at Wesleyan now and the Alumnae news I keep fairly well in touch with Wesleyan."

From across the continent in Lemoore, Calif., Barbara (Lee) Martin sent a brief resume of her activities since leaving Wesleyan after her sophomore year to marry Milo Martin. For two years they were in Biloxi, Miss., then returned to his native California with ranching and dairying to keep them busy, besides being proud parents of a daughter, Cynthia Lee, four, and Richard Alan, a son, two years old.

Mona (Rhodes) McCormack, writes from 9 Roque Mores, Mill Valley, Calif., that she is very happy with army life and they love California. She sends news of four Wesleyanians. Margie (Blue) Russell, who now lives in San Diego had a son December 1st, William David. Mary Jane Doar is now Mrs. Fletcher Hunter and she and her husband are at Harlingen A. F. Base, Texas. Maude (Palmer) Horn and her husband are in Arlington, Va., and so is Gayle Attaway Findlay. Mona and her husband, Jay, plan to take a trip to Mexico in Jan. going all the way to Acapulco if time permits.

Suzanne (Jarrell) Willis writes "After Billy finished his tour of active duty with the Army in March we moved to Savannah where we have bought a home at 2348 Pinetree Road. Billy has been employed as a chemist with the Savannah Sugar Refinery. Denise is now two years old and our second child, William Ray, Jr., was born on Aug. 18, 1957."

Trudy Wilson is teaching the sixth grade at Savannah, Ga. She was a visitor on the campus for homecoming. Wedding bells will be ringing for Trudy in the spring.

Suzette Nash reported for homecoming. She and Trudy Wilson came together, and Suzette advises that she is psychometrist with the Chatham County Board of Education.

Sally McCants is attending Medical College of South Carolina in Charleston, S. C. She graduated from the University of South Carolina last June.

Pat Drew is teaching art in the Savannah schools.

Olivia Evans is teaching at Ft. Benning, Georgia in the Custer Terrace School and sharing an apartment in Columbus, Ga. She was a recent visitor on the campus.

Lillian (Richter) Mather is working in the Milburn, N. J. library in the children's department and loving it. Her husband is studying at Drew University.

Betty Brender and Louise White are attending Emory University and working toward degrees in Library Science.

Alumnae Awards

The time has come for nominations for the Alumnae Awards. The Alumnae Award for Distinguished Achievement is given to that alumna or alumnae chosen by a special committee named for the purpose of reviewing outstanding careers. The Alumnae Award for Distinguished Service to Wesleyan will be awarded to that alumna or alumnae who, in the opinion of the committee best served the college with loyalty and devotion.

In suggesting an alumna for each award please state specifically the reasons you consider the alumna worthy of the award.

For the Distinguished Achievement Award, give such facts as positions held, honors received, work in the community or profession, etc. If you haven't a complete record, suggest, if you can, the name of someone who can supply it.

In nominating an alumna for the Distinguished Service Award, state specifically whether she has worked untiringly in Wesleyan's financial campaigns, whether she has been instrumental in sending good students to Wesleyan, has served on some committee working on a project for Wesleyan, etc. Again be specific, and if you cannot supply all the information, give the name of someone who can.

Nominations may be submitted by other than alumnae.

An Awards Committee, appointed by the President of the Alumnae Association, will verify the data on each nominee and select alumnae for the awards. The Alumnae Board of Managers will make the final selection from recommendations of the Awards Committee.

The Awards will be announced on Alumnae Day at Commencement.

The floor is now open for nominations! Let's have a flood of them, from all over the country! The closing date is March 15th. For your convenience use the nomination plank on this page.
